SUBJECT.

Rectification of certain defects noticed in the distribution of rations to Bhyrages in the Chattisgarh at Nandgaon

[On Inspection Notes]

No 762
Dated 7-64-92

Dy 26th November 1901.

To,

The Dy Commr
Mysore Dist.

Sir,

When last I had occasion on Inspection duty on the 31st ultimo I noticed a number of Pilgrimages waiting in the streets for raw rations from the Nurzai Chatram there. There were none to attend to them the Parpattegar of the Chatram having, as I was informed accompanied the Amildar on Jamabundi work

2. The Taluk Sheristedar informed me that Pilgrimages and other pilgrims resorting to the Chatram were required to go to a particular Shop & obtain rations from the Merchants, to whom payment was made

monthly on production of Accounts. This ~~seems to be~~ is a very unsatisfactory arrangement.

3. The Govt. observe that the Chattram al-Nanjangud being situated at the Taluk & Head Quarters either the Amildar, or in his absence, the Sheristedar should issue chits to the Bhyragees & others
resorting to the Chattram specifying the number of persons to whom rations have to be doled out.

The

the Parpattegar should act upon these chits and submit them with his monthly accounts as vouchers. The immediate supervision of the Chattram affairs should be entrusted to the Peishkar of the Sri Srikanteswaraswami Temple, as is done at Sreerangapatam & other places, through whom the monthly Accounts of the Chattram should be submitted by the Parpattegar.

4. The action taken on this report should be reported. Please
